

The Four Seasons

Retas winner Calladoodles says it has already discovered a Christmas winner thanks to the best-selling vintage posters of scenes by local artist Helena Vaughan. The idea came to Helena following a Christmas gift from Calladoodles' founder and manager Clare Callanan, who bought Helena a calendar of vintage posters for Christmas 2014. "We're very proud to showcase Helena's work," says Clare. "We're exclusive stockists for her designs in the area and are overrun with interest and orders for her work with a waiting list for her prints!"

Above: The Four Seasons posters by Helena Vaughan which are exclusive to Calladoodles.